KIM offers you access to more than 2 million media.

You can borrow most of the textbooks.

In the course reserve (Semesterapparat) you will find literature relevant for a certain course. These books are sorted by lecturers' last names.

You either cannot borrow these books at all, or may only borrow them for 2 days (see yellow note in the book).

Electronic course material is provided via the learning-platform ILIAS (for more information see "Workspace").

New acquisitions, arranged by subject, are displayed in the Information Centre for one week. You can also see them via our Homepage.

The Lake Constance Collection (Bodenseesammlung) is a collection of literature on the Lake Constance area.

The Wessenberg library is on permanent loan from the city of Konstanz, with a focus on publications from the 18th and 19th centuries, mainly from the field of humanities.

This collection is not freely accessible. Please contact the staff at the information desk.
